

*The Boston Center for Refugee Health & Human Rights
at Boston Medical Center and The Health & Human Rights Caucus at the Boston University School of Public Health cordially invite you to*

A Night of Remembrance and Rejoicing Tuesday, June 27, 2006 at 7 pm

Doors open at 6:30 pm to preview the arts and crafts exhibit.

Hiebert Lounge in the Boston University Medical School, 14th floor Talbot Green, 80 East Concord Street, Boston, MA 02118

to showcase and celebrate the Boston Center for Refugee Health & Human Rights with clients and friends and benefactors.

A buffet dinner, entertainment and guest speakers:

Our time to honor the resilience of survivors of torture and to rededicate ourselves to the prevention of torture worldwide. The United Nations has declared June 26th to be International Survivors of Torture Day and this event is in its honor.

The Obunto Award this year will be given to The Political Asylum/Immigration Representation (PAIR) Project for the extraordinary legal support it provides for our patients.
Sarah Ignatius and Anita Sharma will be accepting the award.

*We will also be presenting a Certificate of Appreciation to the Committee of Interns and Residents at BMC and to
The Health & Human Rights Caucus at the Boston University School of Public Health*

A portion of a mural painted by clients of the Boston Center for Refugee Health & Human Rights bcrhhr.org

By Invitation.

R.S.V.P. by phone 617-414-4794 or erica.hastings@bmc.org
(Your reply is requested by June 17th)